

Missionaries In Australia

Dear Pastor and church,

My dear praying friends. Thank you for walking with us through this trial. God has been so good to me. I have lost about 40 pounds, I'm walking every morning for about two miles. We have a new gentleman in church and seems to be interested in attending regularly. I have talked to him about salvation and at first he seemed kind of hostile but now will listen, but will make no commitment—YET. We still have about 15 attending services Sunday's, but four coming Thursday evenings now.

Still in need of a piano player!

God has been so good since I got out of the hospital. I m still pastoring Pleasant View but will be turning that over in March. I have been able to go up and help this other missionary through the week and God seems to have blessed as he is now excited about building his church now—AMEN!

Learned a great lesson. Made up flyers which we have been passing out daily (about 1,000 a week) and one came back. It was interesting, as the lady very respectfully gave me an English lesson about my flyer (your and you're) (stop laughing!) and then that she was grateful that we were out for the Lord. I've since replied and told he that I appreciated her help and invited her to church.

Prayer requests: For help with the families that we have coming, that they won't get discouraged.

For our home to sell or lease in Kokomo.
